Dear Parents/Carers,

World Book Day is on Thursday 7th March and we would like pupils to use their arts and crafts skills to create their favourite book character out of any resources that they have access to. They could use a hard boiled egg, a wooden spoon, they could create a 'book in a jam jar' or even a scene from their favourite book out of plasticine, modelling clay or Lego (examples below). The competition is voluntary and all entries should be handed into class teachers on World Book Day, Thursday 7th March.

Any pupils who bring in their creation will enter a prize draw to win a book out of our reading vending machine.

As well as this competition, we'll also be encouraging pupils to dress up as their favourite book characters and bring in their favourite books. In class we'll be making sure that pupils have a fun day with lots of book-related activities.

Yours Sincerely

Mr Walford
English Lead
